Terms & Conditions

Course Fee

The course fee is listed on a per person basis; and includes class tuition, training materials, lunch and refreshments. The course fee does not include travel and living expenses of the delegate. The course fee excludes VAT. From time to time it may become necessary for pricing to be adjusted. All training pricing is subject to change without notice.

Payment Policy

UTC Fire & Security will send an invoice to Account Holders shortly before the course start date. Payment of these invoices must be submitted within 30 days of invoice date. Please note, credit card payments and / or cash payments are not accepted.

Training Cancellation Policy

- UTC Fire & Security is doing everything possible to ensure that the classes will be running smoothly and on schedule. We believe that we have taken necessary steps to minimise any potential disruption and encourage our customers to contact us if they have any questions or concerns.
- Customers who cancel their course registration at least 10 (ten) business days prior to the first day of class, will receive a full refund or credit.
- Customers who cancel their reservation within 10 (ten) business days before the start of the class will be charged the full fee and will not be entitled to a refund or credit.
- Customers may substitute another delegate from their company at any time up until the start of class.
- Cancellations must be submitted in writing to training.ssa@carrier.com stating the reason for the cancellation.

Course Changes

UTC Fire & Security reserves the right to change course content and / or schedule. In addition, UTC Fire & Security reserves the right to discontinue, cancel and / or reschedule courses if minimum enrolment is not met, or when conditions beyond the company's control prevail. In the event of cancellation, you will be notified within 5 (five) working days prior to the course start date and given priority registration in the next scheduled courses.

Terms & Conditions of Registration

- Registration form must be completed in full to be valid and processed.
- Courses start promptly at 09:00 and finish at 16:00, with lunch provided.
- Delegates must have Basic Electronic Skills.
- Trainees are required to have, at minimum, a basic level of computer knowledge and familiarity. They are not expected to be experts, but have to know how to perform common and frequently used computer functions. UTC Fire & Security reserves the right of admission in this instance.
- Fire detection delegates must have attended the FDIA SANS10139 training course.
- All information supplied above is taken as accurate and UTC Fire & Security takes no responsibility for inaccurate information on any documentation.
- A completed Registration Form received via email or fax is regarded as confirmation and delegates will be liable for any costs incurred through non-attendance in any form. Customers may substitute another delegate from their company at any time up until the start of class.
- Any feedback can be submitted in writing to the Technical Support Manager at support.ssa@fs.utc.com.

Accommodation & Transport

Delegate accommodation and transport to be arranged by the booking company or delegate. UTC Fire & Security does not accept any responsibility regarding accommodation and / or transportation. Accommodation and transportation costs remain the booking company and / or delegate's responsibility.

Data Privacy Protection

UTC Fire & Security SA is committed to protecting the Personal Data of our customers, employees, contractors and business partners as per the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (Europe) and the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI) (SA).
